First system of musical notation, featuring a treble and bass clef. The treble staff contains a melodic line with eighth and sixteenth notes, and a first ending bracket labeled '1' at the end. The bass staff provides a simple accompaniment with quarter notes and rests.

Second system of musical notation. The treble staff begins with a second ending bracket labeled '2' and contains a series of sixteenth-note chords. The bass staff continues with a rhythmic accompaniment.

Third system of musical notation. The treble staff features a melodic line with various intervals and a final flourish. The bass staff maintains the accompaniment with quarter notes.

Fourth system of musical notation. The treble staff has a melodic line with some tied notes. The bass staff continues with the accompaniment.

Fifth system of musical notation, concluding the piece. It features two first ending brackets labeled '1' and '2' in the treble staff. The bass staff provides the final accompaniment.
