Jamie,

As we walked back to the hotel, I kept thinking about my family (wife and 3 small children) and how I needed to talk to them and tell them that I was okay. It was very difficult to get through on cell phones afterwards, but when one of my classmates did get through (Jim Allen and Eric Scheid) I gave them my wife's name and number. Once I got back to the hotel, I called my wife and only then, did I start to feel better again.

Thanks,
-RM

Good morning. I have been asked to publish a special edition to the Commodore based on the events that took place last week. Because all of you were in a class at the Pentagon, I would like to know if you have a story, statement, quote, or anything that you would like to share with fellow employees on base (in the Commodore). Please e-mail me or call me at [REDACTED] if you would like to submit anything. This is completely optional. Thank you for your time, and we are all so happy that you returned safely.
