

VA-175

Lineage

Established as Torpedo Squadron EIGHTY TWO (VT-82) on 1 April 1944.

Redesignated Attack Squadron EIGHTEEN A (VA-18A) on 15 November 1946.

Redesignated Attack Squadron ONE HUNDRED SEVENTY FIVE (VA-175) on 11 August 1948.

Disestablished on 15 March 1958. The first squadron to be assigned the VA-175 designation.

Squadron Insignia and Nickname

The first squadron insignia was the devil design.

The squadron's first insignia was approved by CNO on 4 December 1945. Colors for the devil insignia were: a hyacinth blue background; a white hypodermic needle with a black tip; the devil was red with yellow eyes and black pupils; yellow horns and teeth; and black wings with white ribs.

A new insignia was approved by CNO on 18 October 1951. Colors for the winged figure were: a black background with a yellow border; red winged figure with black markings, white skull with black markings and the wings were black with red markings; white cloud with black markings; yellow bomb with black markings and a green nose; green rocket with black markings, a red nose and yellow and red flames coming from the tail.

Nickname: Devil's Diplomats, time frame unknown.

During Korea the winged skull man was approved for used by the squadron.

Chronology of Significant Events

15 Dec 1944–7 Jan 1945: The squadron, embarked in Bennington (CV 20), was in transit from Norfolk to Hawaii, with a two day stop over at San Diego.

7 Jan 1945: The squadron's commanding officer, Lieutenant Commander W. F. Eadie, was killed in an automobile accident.

16 Feb 1945: The squadron participated in its first combat operations, flying sorties against the air strip at Hachijo Jima and against airfields in the Tokyo area. The squadron's commanding officer, Lieutenant Commander E. D. DeGarmo, was awarded the Silver Star for his actions during the missions against the Japanese airfields.

20–22 Feb 1945: The squadron provided close air support for operations on Iwo Jima.

19 Mar 1945: Squadron aircraft participated in strikes against the Japanese Fleet, which included the battleship Yamato, located near Kure and Hiroshima in the Inland Sea.

7 Apr 1945: Squadron aircraft were the first to attack a powerful Japanese Task Force that had sortied from the Inland Sea and were operating west of Kyushu. This force included the battleship Yamato and her escorts. The squadron achieved hits on two destroyers and one light cruiser, sinking one of the destroyers. Attacks from other task force aircraft resulted in the sinking of the Yamato, a cruiser and three other destroyers. Seven squadron pilots were awarded the Navy Cross for their actions during this engagement. They were: Lieutenant Commander Edward E. DeGarmo; Lieutenants Jesse W. Naul, Jr. and Norman A. Wiese; and Lieutenant (jg)s John F. Gilbreath, Jr., Wilfred O. McDowell, Donald B. Barber and Charles R. Walton.

Mar–May 1945: The squadron was involved in preinvasion strikes on Okinawa and provided support following the invasion of the island.

17 Jun 1945: VT-82 completed its tour of combat duty and embarked in White Plains (CVE 66) for its transit back to the States, arriving at NAS Alameda on 9 July.

Nov–Dec 1956: Franklin D. Roosevelt (CVA 42), with VA-175 embarked, was ordered to deploy and operate off the coast of Spain as a result of the Suez Canal crisis.

The torch design was the squadron's first insignia.

the inner one was light blue; white mailed fist with black markings; yellow torch with black markings and a bright red flame; white atomic clouds with blue borders and markings. The scroll had a white background outlined in dark blue with dark blue lettering.

The squadron's second insignia adopted the mailed fist.

Squadron Insignia and Nickname

The squadron's first insignia was approved by CNO on 16 July 1956. Colors for torch insignia were: a light blue background outlined in dark blue; the shield was outlined in white with white stars on a dark blue field; the outer thunderbolt was international orange and

The squadron's second insignia was approved by CNO on 3 January 1974. Colors for this insignia were: a dark blue background and scroll outlined in black and white; white stars and lettering; blue mailed fist is outlined in white; and an orange lightning bolt.

Nickname: Thunderbolts, 1955–1992.

Chronology of Significant Events

Oct–Dec 1956: Randolph (CVA 15), with VA-176 embarked, was ordered to operate off the coast of Egypt in response to the Suez War.

14 Nov–8 Dec 1960: Following a request from Guatemala and Nicaragua, a Navy patrol was established off the coast of these Central American countries to prevent infiltration by communists from Cuba. The squadron operated from Shangri-La (CVA 38) until 25 November when it conducted a complete transfer of aircraft and personnel from Shangri-La to Wasp (CVA 18) while underway. It remained on station aboard Wasp until 8 December.

2–19 Jun 1961: Following the assassination of the Dominican Republic's dictator, General Rafael Trujillo, the squadron operated from Shangri-La off the coast of that country until the domestic situation began to stabilize.

May 1963: The squadron operated from Shangri-La in the Caribbean during the period of unrest in Haiti and the civil strife with the Dominican Republic.

Aug 1965: Squadron aircraft were used in Operation Pinwheel on several occasions while Shangri-La was moored at Naples, Italy. The aircraft were secured to the deck of the carrier and the thrust from their propellers were used to help prevent the ship, which was undergoing repairs, from breaking out of her mooring during bad weather and high winds.

4 Apr 1966: VA-176 deployed to Vietnam as a component of CVW-10 embarked in Intrepid (CVS 11). This was the first all attack air wing formed and the first to deploy. Two squadron were flying the A-1 Skyraider and two the A-4 Skyhawk.

15 May 1966: Flying from Dixie Station, the squadron conducted its first combat sorties, flying strikes against insurgent forces in the Republic of Vietnam.

9 Oct 1966: While flying a rescue combat air patrol mission, four squadron aircraft engaged four North Vietnamese MiGs. Lieutenant (jg) William T. Patton shot down one of the MiG-17s during the engagement. This was the first and only shoot down of an enemy jet aircraft by a propeller driven plane during the Vietnam Conflict. For this action, Lieutenant (jg) Patton was awarded the Silver Star.

8 Jun 1967: When Israeli forces attacked Liberty (AGTR 5), four squadron aircraft were launched from Saratoga (CVA 60) and ordered to proceed to the ship and defend it. Shortly after their launch the aircraft were recalled when Israel apologized for the attack.

Aug 1969: Squadron A-6A Intruders were used in operation Storm Fury 1969. The aircraft were used to seed Hurricane Debbie by flying sorties that penetrated the wall of the hurricane, flew through the eye and exited the wall again, at which time seeding chemicals were dispensed.

25 Sep 1970: VA-176 became the first fleet squadron to operate the KA-6D tanker aircraft.

Oct–Nov 1973: The squadron, embarked in Franklin D. Roosevelt (CVA 42), operated in the vicinity of Crete in response to the Arab-Israeli war.

Jun 1976: The American Ambassador to Lebanon was assassinated on 13 June and America (CV 66), with VA-176 embarked, operated in the vicinity of Lebanon. Squadron aircraft flew support missions during the evacuation of noncombatants from that country.

May 1981: Independence (CV 62), with VA-176 embarked, following its transit of the Suez Canal, remained on station in the eastern Mediterranean due to the crisis between Israel and Syria following Israeli raids against Syrian surface-to-air missile sites in Lebanon.

25 Oct–1 Nov 1983: In response to continued political strife and the need to protect and evacuate Americans from the island country of Granada, VA-176 aircraft flew combat close air support and reconnaissance sorties in support of operation Urgent Fury, the landing of U.S. Marines and Army rangers on the island.

4 Dec 1983: In response to hostile fire against U.S. reconnaissance aircraft from Syrian positions in Lebanon, VA-176 aircraft participated in a coordinated strike against Syrian radar, communications and artillery positions overlooking the Multi-National Peacekeeping Forces. All five of the squadron aircraft completed their mission and returned safely to the carrier.

Jun–Jul 1988: The squadron flew support for Earnest Will Missions, escort operations for reflagged Kuwaiti oil tankers during the Iraq-Iranian War in the Persian Gulf.

Jun–Sep 1991: The squadron flew missions in support of Operation Provide Comfort, supporting the 24th Marine Expeditionary Unit's mission to aid the Kurdish refugees in Iraq following the Gulf War.

VA-185

Lineage

Established as Attack Squadron ONE HUNDRED EIGHTY FIVE (VA-185) on 1 December 1986

Disestablished on 30 August 1991. The first squadron to be assigned the VA-185 designation.

Squadron Insignia and Nickname

The squadron's insignia was approved by CNO on 8 September 1986. Colors for the hawk insignia were: a black background; a blue sea and white sky with black markings; white hawk with black markings, red eyes and claws; gold star; blue upper scroll outlined in black with gold lettering; gold lower scroll outlined in black with blue lettering.

The squadron's Nighthawks insignia.

Nickname: Nighthawks, 1986–1991.

Chronology of Significant Events

Sep 1987: The squadron was forward deployed to NAS Atsugi, Japan, and assigned to Midway (CV 41), home ported at Naval Station Yokosuka, Japan.

Nov 1987-Jan 1988: The squadron flew support for Earnest Will Missions, escort operations for reflagged Kuwaiti oil tankers during the Iraq-Iranian War in the Persian Gulf.

Sep 1988: VA-185, embarked in Midway, operated in the Sea of Japan during the summer Olympics being held in Seoul, Korea, to demonstrate U.S. support for a peaceful olympics.

Dec 1989: Midway, with VA-185 embarked, maintained station off the coast of Philippines during an attempted coup in that country.

Nov 1990-Jan 1991: The squadron flew missions in support of Operation Desert Shield, the build-up of American and Allied forces to counter a threatened invasion of Saudi Arabia by Iraq and were part of an economic blockade of Iraq to force its withdrawal from Kuwait.

Jan-Feb 1991: The squadron participated in Operation Desert Storm. VA-185 led the first air strikes from naval elements operating in the Persian Gulf. During the Gulf War, squadron aircraft struck Iraqi naval targets and bases, airfields and bridges, and provided close air support for Allied ground forces. The squadron flew a total of 457 combat missions, comprising 940 combat flight hours and delivered 720,000 pounds of ordnance on enemy targets.

6 Aug 1991: The squadron held a disestablishment ceremony at NAS Atsugi, Japan. It was officially disestablished on 30 August 1991.

VA-194

Lineage

Established as Bombing Squadron NINETEEN (VB-19) on 15 August 1943.

Redesignated Attack Squadron NINETEEN A (VA-19A) on 15 November 1946.

Redesignated Attack Squadron ONE HUNDRED NINETY FOUR (VA-194) on 24 August 1948.

Disestablished on 1 December 1949. The first squadron to be assigned the VA-194 designation.

Squadron Insignia and Nickname

The squadron's first insignia was approved by CNO on 26 May 1944. Colors for the winged lion rampant and bomb were: yellow shield outlined in black; black bomb; and a green winged lion rampant with black markings on the wings and a red eye and tongue.

The rampant winged lion was the squadron's first insignia.

black markings, its wings were chartreuse with a white star on a circular blue background; yellow rockets and chartreuse machine guns with black markings; white bulldogs with orange collars; the bulldog in front had a black face with yellow eyes, black pupils, and an orange snout, tongue and lips and white teeth.

A new squadron insignia was approved by CNO on 9 July 1945. Colors for this insignia were: a medium blue background; a yellow flying bomb with

The dogs riding a winged bomb was the second insignia used by the squadron.

This insignia was tentatively approved for the squadron. However, the squadron was disestablished three months afterwards and it most likely was not implemented for use by the squadron.

CNO on 11 March 1948 pending the removal of the squadron designation. Colors for the winged lightning bolt were: a blue background with a white inner border ringed by a yellow rope; maroon lightning bolt; and the wings were yellow with black markings.

Nickname: unknown.

Chronology of Significant Events

18–21 Jul 1944: The squadron's first combat sorties involved preinvasion strikes on Guam. It also provided support for the initial landings on the island.

Jul–Oct 1944: Squadron aircraft flew sorties against targets on Palau, Bonin Islands, the Philippines, including Mindanao and Luzon, Okinawa, Formosa and the Pescadores.

24 Oct 1944: Squadron aircraft participated in several major engagements during the Battle for Leyte Gulf. VB-19 aircraft flew search missions from north of Lingayen Gulf to the northern tip of Mindoro to locate the Japanese Task Force. It struck the Japanese Central Force in the Sibuyan Sea, which included the super battleship Musashi. However, only limited damage was caused by the squadron's attack since its aircraft were armed only with general purpose bombs instead of armor piercing bombs. For his actions during this engagement Lieutenant Leonard R. Swanson was awarded the Navy Cross and Lieutenant (jg)s Stuart E. Crapser and Herbert N. Walters were awarded Silver Stars.

24 Oct 1944: The squadron's commanding officer, Commander R. S. McGowan, failed to return from a combat mission and was declared missing in action.

25 Oct 1944: The squadron participated in coordinated attacks against the Japanese Carrier Task Force in the Battle Off Cape Engano. VB-19 aircraft claimed they either sunk or assisted in the sinking of three Japanese carriers. Four Japanese carriers were sunk during the battle. Thirty-two squadron pilots were awarded the Navy Cross for their actions in this battle. They were: Lieutenants Price R. Stradley, Robert D. Niemeyer, John B. Gunter, William E. McBride, Emil B. Stella, Jack Meeker, John L. Butts, Jr., Donald F. Helm, Norman E. Thurmon, Donald F. Banker, Robert B. Parker, Joe W. Williams, Jr., William A. Wright and Raymond G. Wicklander; Lieutenant (jg)s George H. Bowen, Melvin L. Chapman, Robert E. Lee Duncan, Jr., Donald D. Engen, Arnost Jancar, Jerry B. Wilton, Webster P. Wodell, Daniel Sadler, Jr., Louis A. Heilmann, George W. Peck, Jack Scott, Stuart E. Crapser, John H. Crocker, William T. Good and Robert G. Smith; and Ensigns Leon F. Kinard, Robert W. Doyle and William H. Wagner, Jr. Two squadron personnel were awarded the Silver Star for their actions; they were: Lieutenants Donald F. Banker and Leonard R. Swanson.

5–6 Nov 1944: The squadron's final sorties involved attacks on Manila Bay and the successful sinking of a Japanese Heavy Cruiser on 5 November. For their actions in the sinking of the cruiser, Lieutenants Donald F. Banker and Price R. Stradley were awarded Gold Stars in lieu of their second Navy Cross.

26 Nov-14 Dec 1944: The squadron and air group were relieved by CVG-20 and were enroute from Ulithi Atoll, via Hawaii, to the States.

VA-196

Lineage

Established as Fighter Squadron ONE HUNDRED FIFTY THREE (VF-153) on 15 July 1948.

Redesignated Fighter Squadron ONE HUNDRED NINETY FOUR (VF-194) on 15 February 1950.

Redesignated Attack Squadron ONE HUNDRED NINETY SIX (VA-196) on 4 May 1955. The first squadron to be assigned the VA-196 designation.

The winged tiger, the squadron's first insignia, is not recorded as officially approved.

Squadron Insignia and Nickname

There is no record of approval by CNO for the squadron's first insignia. The colors for the winged tiger probably were: a white background outlined in red; gold wings with black markings; blue waves with black markings; the clouds shaded gray with black outlines; yellow claws and tiger head, with black markings; and red lightning bolts with black markings.

A new insignia was approved by CNO on 5 October 1950. Colors for the devil and ace of spades insignia were: a white background with a black border; the devil was yellow with black markings; the machine gun, rocket and ammo belt were red with black markings; the ace of spades was black; and the lightning bolt was orange outlined in black.

Following the squadron's redesignation to VA-196, it continued to use the devil and ace of spades insignia until 14 September 1967 when CNO approved a new insignia. Colors for the ace of spades with the devil face is: an orange background with a black border; the

The devil and ace of spades insignia was the squadron's second insignia and was used for 17 years.

The squadron modified its devil insignia in 1967 and adopted the devil face superimposed on the ace of spades.

ace of spades is black; the devil's face is superimposed on the ace of spades and outlined in yellow, the teeth, eyes and horns are white with black pupils and black markings on the horns; the scroll has a white background outlined in black, with black lettering.

Nicknames: Thundercats, 1948–1950s.

The Main Battery, 1950s–present. Beginning in 1979 the squadron used Milestones interchangeably with its nickname Main Battery.

Chronology of Significant Events

11 Dec 1951: The squadron flew its first combat sorties, flying interdiction missions in Korea against enemy lines of communications, transportation, industrial and supply facilities.

22 Mar 1952: During a bombing run on a rail line north of Kowon, Korea, Ensign K. A. Schechter was wounded when an enemy shell struck the canopy of his AD Skyraider and exploded. He was blinded by the blood from the wound causing him to maneuver erratically. Lieutenant (jg) J. H. Thayer, heard Ensign Schechter's call for assistance and observing his erratic maneuvering, flew alongside and began giving radio instructions to the blinded pilot. Using Lieutenant Thayer's radio guidance, Ensign Schechter flew his plane to an emergency air strip and successfully landed the aircraft.

Feb 1955: In January 1955, the People's Republic of China began bombardment of the Tachen Islands held by Nationalist China. In February squadron aircraft provided air cover during the evacuation of Chinese Nationalist military and civilian personnel from the islands.

Aug–Oct 1964: The squadron was involved in operations off the coast of Vietnam following the Tonkin Gulf Incident.

21 Aug 1967: The squadron's commanding officer, Commander L. T. Profilet and his NFO Lieutenant Commander W. M. Hardman, were shot down and taken prisoner during a mission over North Vietnam. They were released by North Vietnam and returned to the U.S. on 29 March 1973.

Dec 1971: Following the outbreak of war between India and Pakistan over East Pakistan (Bangladesh), Enterprise (CVAN 65) was ordered to leave Yankee Station for operations in the Indian Ocean. The carrier, with VA-196 embarked, operated in the Bay of Bengal until the early part of January 1972 and cessation of hostilities.

Oct 1972: The squadron participated in Linebacker I operations, heavy air strikes against targets in North Vietnam to interdict the flow of supplies into South Vietnam.

Dec 1972: Squadron aircraft participated in Linebacker II operations, an intensified version of Linebacker I.

Feb–May 1973: Squadron aircraft flew air support for Operation End Sweep, the clearing of mines from North Vietnamese waters.

Apr 1975: The squadron, along with other CVW-14 units, provided air cover support during the evacuation of personnel from Saigon as it fell to the communists.

Feb 1977: During the crisis in Uganda and threats against Americans in that country, Enterprise, with VA-196 embarked, operated off the coast of Kenya ready to evacuate Americans from Uganda.

Dec 1979: Coral Sea (CV 43), with VA-196 embarked, operated off the coast of South Korea following the assassination of South Korea's President Park Chung-Hee in late October.

Apr 1980: Coral Sea, with the squadron embarked, was part of the task force involved in supporting the Iranian hostage rescue attempt.

May 1980: Following civil unrest in South Korea, the squadron, embarked in Coral Sea, operated off the coast of that country.

Aug 1983: Due to the unsettled conditions in Central America, Coral Sea, with VA-196 embarked, operated off the coast of Nicaragua and also participated in surveillance for illegal drug traffic.

Jul 1987: Due to the increased attacks on merchant and tanker shipping in the Persian Gulf during the Iran/Iraqi War, the United States began to escort reflagged Kuwaiti oil tankers. During operation Earnest Will, VA-196 provided air support for the first convoy of reflagged tankers passing through the Strait of Hormuz.

Aug 1990: Due to the invasion of Kuwait by Iraq, Independence (CV 62), with VA-196 embarked, was ordered to the North Arabian Sea.

Aug–2 Oct 1990: VA-196 flew sorties from Independence in support of Operation Desert Shield, the build up of American and Allied forces to counter a threatened invasion of Saudi Arabia by Iraq.

2 Oct–2 Nov 1990: On 2 October, Independence entered the Persian Gulf and operated in those waters for two days before returning to the Northern Arabian Sea. VA-196 continued flying sorties for operation Desert Shield until Independence was relieved on 2 November and departed for its return trip to the States.

VA-205

Lineage

Established as Attack Squadron TWO HUNDRED FIVE (VA-205) on 1 July 1970.

Disestablished on 31 December 1994. The first squadron to be assigned the VA-205 designation.

The squadron's one and only insignia.

Squadron Insignia and Nickname

The squadron's insignia was approved by CNO on 15 October 1971. Colors for the insignia are white and green: a white background and scroll outlined in green; green lettering; and green bomb and falcon with white markings.

Nickname: Green Falcons, 1971–1994.

Chronology of Significant Events

1 Jul 1970: VA-205, a reserve squadron, was established as part of a reorganization intended to increase the combat readiness of the Naval Air Reserve Force.

Aug 1971: The squadron conducted its two weeks of active duty training embarked on John F. Kennedy (CVA 67) as part of CVWR-20. This was the first complete Reserve Carrier Air Wing deployment aboard a carrier.

May 1972: The squadron participated in exercise Exotic Dancer V, designed to test multi-service operations under a unified command organization.

4 Sep 1975: Squadron pilots began transition training with VA-125 in preparation for receiving the A-7 Corsair II.

6–16 Jul 1982: The squadron, along with other units of CVWR-20, participated in operations on Carl Vinson (CVN 70), with the emphasis on coordinated air wing operations.

10–23 May 1986: During an annual active duty deployment to NAS Fallon, the squadron participated in close air support training, air wing strike evolutions, and an excellent simulated two day war exercise conducted by Strike University.

1 Oct 1993: The squadron assumed the additional mission (Fleet Support Readiness Group, FTRG) of providing electronic support to simulate missile attacks on surface ships for training purposes. This mission had previously been performed by VAQ-33 (Carrier Tactical Electronics Warfare Squadron-33).
